

Teaching. Learning. Leading.

Call for Presenters

Virginia Education Association

Instruction & Professional Development Conference

October 11-12, 2019

Richmond Marriott Downtown, Richmond, Virginia

“Fund Our Future: Investing in the Schools Our Students Deserve”

We seek proposals for presentations in the following areas:

- Trauma-informed practices
- Instructional strategies that work at the high school, middle school, and/or elementary levels
- Bridging the gap between Pre-K – K-12
- Developing local assessments
- College, Career and Life Readiness Skills Development
- Integrating technology with instruction
- Bullying prevention
- Practical, “walk-away” tips and strategies to use right away
- Meeting the diverse needs of all students: cultural, economic, language, learning, special needs
- Community, civic, family, school engagement, and empowerment
- Student and School safety
- Mental health
- Teacher Pipeline (recruitment and retention issues)
- Creating and using rubrics
- Stress management
- Supporting students with social, emotional, and behavioral needs
- Leadership styles and development
- Education Support Professional issues
- Diversity and Equity
- Literacy

Specifics:

- Concurrent sessions will be one and a half hours.
- Preference will be given to proposals that are interactive in nature.
- The title and description should accurately reflect the content, activities, and outcomes of your session.
- Preference in selection will be given to VEA members as Presenters/Co-Presenters.

Deadline for submitting proposals is July 5, 2019

Audio-visual needs: The VEA will provide each session with an LCD Projector and Laptop. Upon request, the VEA will provide chart paper and markers. If your session requires any other AV needs, it will be your responsibility to provide those, but please make us aware in case technical support may be needed.

Please note that your session is not a vending opportunity, but an educational training for our members. If you would like a vendor table or information, please email estjohn@veanea.org

Preference in selection will be given to VEA members as Presenters/Co-Presenters.

All proposals must be submitted electronically on or before Friday, July 5, 2019 using this link:
https://vea.link/2019IPDCall_Presenter

Questions? Please call Melinda Bright, Teaching & Learning Specialist, at 804-775-8331 or toll free 800-552-9554 ext. 331