The VEA Fund Recommends Sen. Dick Saslaw
in the Senate District 33 Democratic Primary

The VEA Fund for Children and Public Education today announced its recommendation of Senator Dick Saslaw in Senate District 35’s Democratic Primary.

“Sen. Dick Saslaw has been a stalwart proponent and advocate for public education for his entire term of service in Virginia’s Senate. He has earned the support of the VEA Fund through his hard work on behalf of public education and impeccable voting record in support of our legislative agendas for multiple General Assembly sessions. We believe we can continue to count on him to do what’s best for our public schools, our students, and our educators.” said Jim Livingston, President of the Virginia Education Association.

“Sen. Saslaw has continued his support for public education this General Assembly session, and the VEA Fund recommendation in the Democratic primary is intended to make sure Sen. Saslaw is re-elected in November so he can continue his service to public education,” Livingston continued. “With that in mind, VEA Fund members are proud to recommend a champion of public education such as Sen. Dick Saslaw in the Democratic primary.”

The VEA Fund is supported solely by voluntary contributions from Virginia Education Association members and others. VEA does not contribute member dues dollars to support candidates.
