Join VEA-Retired

Your membership in VEA-Retired and NEA-Retired helps your Association achieve its goals for schools, for active school employees, and for retirees. Providing security and dignity for school retirees has always been a high priority for VEA, and you can help through your membership. We also have a growing list of active local VEA-Retired chapters that will welcome your participation and continued fellowship.

Who's Eligible

VEA-Retired and NEA-Retired are programs of the Virginia Education Association and National Education Association for members who have retired from employment in the field of public education. Lifetime or yearly membership in VEA-Retired is available to retired NEA members with at least five years' experience. Membership is open to all retired VEA members even if they now live out of state. Current active members can join as pre-retired subscribers prior to their retirement to lock in membership and avoid future price increases.

Benefits of Membership

Among the benefits of being a VEA-Retired member:

- Staying connected with fellow NEA members and programs
- Opportunities to share your expertise by volunteering and mentoring
- Supporting political and legislative efforts to protect your retirement resources
- Excellent, cost-saving programs such as Medicare supplement insurance and our long-term care insurance program
- Continuing subscriptions to The Virginia Journal of Education, the VEA's retiree newsletter, VEA-R Connections, and the NEA's retiree magazine, This Active Life
- A variety of other money-saving member benefits, such as insurance programs, credit programs, loan and mortgage programs, deposit savings accounts, and investment programs

For more information

Contact VEA-Retired president, Dennis Pfennig (vearetired@veanea.org) or Bea Snidow, the VEA-Retired staff liaison (804-775-8328; bsnidow@veanea.org).

A note to members who have retired but have chosen to return to part-time or full-time teaching in a special program: VEA-R membership was not designed nor priced for members who are employed either on a full-time or a part-time basis. VEA-R membership provides only limited UniServ assistance and does not cover the member for employment-related problems. Thus, if you are teaching on a full or part-time basis, you should become an Active Member in order to make use of your UniServ Director's expertise or to participate in the VEA/NEA Legal Services Program (Kate Frank-Dushane Program).

Lifetime Members and Pre-Retired Subscribers will not be required to pay additional dues at any time in the future for any reason. Annual members will be sent a renewal form each year prior to September 1.
